AFFIDAVIT

On April 6, 2012 Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) Special Agent (S/A) Jarrell W. Perry was at the Greyhound Bus Station, 320 First Street, Albuquerque, New Mexico to meet the eastbound Greyhound Bus which makes a regularly scheduled stop in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

S/A Perry boarded the bus, walked to the rear of the bus and began conducting consensual encounters with the passengers that were aboard the bus. S/A Perry approached a male, later identified as Adrian OCHOA, who was seated in his respective seat on the bus. S/A Perry displayed his DEA badge to OCHOA, identified himself as a police officer to OCHOA, asked for and received permission to speak with OCHOA. After a short conversation, S/A Perry asked for and received voluntary permission from OCHOA to search OCHOA's person for contraband.

S/A Perry felt a hard-like bundle on the lower right leg of OCHOA. S/A Perry knew from his training and experience that the hard-like bundle was consistent with illegal narcotics. S/A Perry handcuffed OCHOA and removed OCHOA from the bus. S/A Perry lifted up the bottom of OCHOA's right pants leg, which revealed a green colored saran wrapped bundle that was taped to the skin of OCHOA's lower right leg. S/A Perry knew from his training and experience that the bundle and packaging was consistent with illegal narcotics.

OCHOA was transported to the DEA Albuquerque District Office (DEA ADO). At the DEA ADO, S/A Perry and New Mexico State Police Agent Vincent Montez removed the hard-like bundle from OCHOA's lower right leg. S/A Perry and Agent Montez weighed the bundle, approximately 248.00 gross grams. S/A Perry and Agent Montez field-tested the clear crystal like substance from the bundle, which produced a positive reaction for the presence of methamphetamine.

At the DEA ADO, S/A Perry, in the presence of Agent Montez read OCHOA his Miranda rights. OCHOA said that he understood his Miranda rights and was willing to answer questions. OCHOA said that he knew that he was transporting what he believed to be methamphetamine but, did not know how much. OCHOA said that he was to be paid $500.00 for transporting the methamphetamine to Little Rock, Arkansas.

This affidavit is submitted for the limited purpose of providing probable cause to support the attached criminal complaint.
